

OPEN HOUSE

The Crow Wing County Historical Society invites everyone to attend our open house on Saturday, October 12th from 10 am—3pm to discover “What’s New at the Museum.”

(museum located next to the courthouse on Laurel Street)

Events planned:

- Unveiling of the restored portrait of Lyman P. White
- Selling and author signing of the “Brainerd” book
  - Historic plaque put on the museum
  - Light refreshments

Hope to see you there!

The much anticipated “Brainerd” book will be available to purchase beginning on October 12th! The book published by Arcadia Publishing is part of the Images of America series. The Crow Wing County Historical Society is the author of the book. Using over 200 archival photographs the book presents the distinctive stories from Brainerd’s past that shaped the character of the community today.
